Instructions for Completing the Authorization to Disclose Health Information Form

If you have any questions, please feel free to call us at the customer service number on your member identification card.

Please read the following for help completing page one of the form.

CHECK THIS BOX IF YOU ARE APPEALING A DENIED CLAIM, A DENIED PREAUTHORIZATION, OR YOUR COST SHARE.

PART A: Member Information

This section applies to the member who is asking for the release of his or her information to another person or company.

- Write your Identification number You will find this number on your member identification card.
- Write your full street address, city, state, and zip code.
- 5 Write your date of birth.

6 Write your daytime phone number (including area code).

PART B: Health Plan that will release your information

Print the name of your Health Plan that provides your health insurance coverage.

PART C: Recipient - Person or organization that will receive your information

Write the full name, address, telephone number and relationship to you of the person or company that you want us to give your information to. Please don't use a general term like "my daughter" or "my son" as it will not be accepted. You need to be specific.

The individual that you designate to receive your information must be 18 years or older. If the individual is an emancipated minor, legal documentation of emancipation must be provided to your Health Plan before your information will be released to the minor.

PART D: Description of the Information to be Released - This section tells us what information you would like us to release: all or just some.

Examples of legal documents:

- General or Durable Power of Attorney. This document gives someone the legal power to act on your behalf and make health care decisions for you.
- Legal Guardianship. This is when the court appoints someone to care for another person.
- Conservatorship. This happens when a judge appoints a responsible person to make decisions for someone who can't make responsible decisions for him/herself.
- Executor of estate or death certificate. This type of document would be used when the person who is being represented has died.
